The Presiding Officer laid H. B. No. 77 before the Senate on its final passage. (The bill having been read the third time on Wednesday, April 5, 1961.)

Question—Shall H. B. No. 77 be finally passed?

Senator Weinert offered the following amendment to the bill:

Amend House Bill 77 by striking out all below the enacting clause and substituting therefor the following:

Section 1. Section 49 of the Election Code of Texas, 1951 (compiled as Article 5.17, Vernon's Annotated Election Code), is amended to read:

"49. Certificates of exemption based on nonage and nonresidence

"As a condition to voting, any person who is in other respects a qualified voter and who is exempt from the payment of a poll tax by reason of the fact that he had not yet reached the age of twenty-one years or was not a resident of this State on the first day of January preceding its levy, must have obtained from the tax collector of the county of his residence a certificate of exemption from the payment of a poll tax not later than thirty days before any election at which he wishes to vote; provided, however, that a person who obtains an exemption certificate at any time before the first day of February for use during the ensuing voting year may vote at any election held after the beginning of the voting year if he is otherwise eligible to vote at the time of the election. No such person who has failed or refused to obtain such certificate of exemption shall be allowed to vote.

"Such exempt person shall on oath state the information required in Section 48 of this Code, and shall also state the date of his birth if the ground is nonage and the date on which he became a resident of this State if the ground is nonresidence.

"Certificates of exemption required by this section shall be issued from the same book and in the same form indicated by Section 48 of this Code, except that in addition thereto the certificate shall set out the date of birth if the ground is nonage and the date of becoming a resident of this State if the ground is nonresidence. No charge shall be made by the tax collector for the issuance of certificates of exemption required by this section.

"An exempt person who applies for a certificate as prescribed by this section between the dates of October 1 and January 1 following shall be issued a certificate for use during the remainder of the current voting year (the voting year being from February 1 through January 31) if he is then a qualified elector or will become a qualified elector before the expiration of that voting year, and shall also be issued a certificate for use during the ensuing voting year if he will be entitled to vote without payment of a poll tax during the ensuing year. On applications received between the dates of January 2 and January 31 following, the tax collector shall issue the applicant an exemption certificate for use during the ensuing voting year if he will be a qualified elector entitled to vote without payment of a poll tax at any time during the ensuing year. On applications received between the dates of February 1 and September 31 following, the tax collector shall issue the applicant an exemption certificate for use during the current voting year if he is then a qualified elector or will become a qualified elector before the end of that voting year.

"If at the time of issuance of a certificate for a current voting year the applicant is a qualified elector or will become a qualified elector within thirty days thereafter, the tax collector shall place upon the face of the certificate the notation, 'Holder not entitled to vote before _____,' inserting the date on which the certificate will have been issued for a period of thirty days. If at the time of issuance of a certificate the applicant is not a qualified elector and will not have become a qualified elector within thirty days after the date of issuance if issued for the current voting year, or by the beginning of the ensuing voting year if issued for the ensuing year, the tax collector shall place a similar notation on the certificate, in-serting the date on which the applicant will become 21 years old, or will have resided in the State for one year and in the county for six months, as the case may be. The tax collector shall also place the notation alongside the certificate holder's name on the list of qualified voters.

"The tax collector shall place on the regular list of qualified voters the names of persons who receive an exemption certificate as prescribed by this section prior to the time he makes up such list. He shall make up and furnish supplemental lists of persons to whom such certificates are subsequently issued, as required by Section 54 of this Code."

Sec. 2. All exemption certificates heretofore issued pursuant to Section 49 of the Election Code for use during the 1961 voting year shall continue in force for the remainder of the voting year.

Sec. 3. The need for clarification of the time for issuance of exemption certificates required by the statute herein amended, and the fact that some qualified electors are being deprived of a right to vote because of confusion as to whether they may obtain certificates before having attained all the qualifications of an elector, create an emergency and an imperative public necessity that the Constitutional Rule requiring bills to be read on three several days in each House be suspended, and said Rule is hereby suspended, and that this Act take effect and be in force from and after its passage, and it is so enacted.
